

THREE EXCURSIONS DAILY TO BEAUTIFUL TUXEDO!

The Gem of Washington Suburbs.

Why pay $200 for lots when for $35 you can buy a better lot at TUXEDO on EASY payments?

Tuxedo is situated on the Pennsylvania Railroad 1-4 of a mile outside the District lines adjacent to the center of the city. Station on grounds. Commutation fare, 6 cents. It has a fine Mineral Spring, ground high.

Choice Lots $35 and up!

Warranty Deed Free. 10 Per Cent. Off for Cash.

Don't miss this chance of a lifetime. Buy where your family will reap the benefit of pure air and spring water, and your investment will triple in a year. Only a hundred lots left. A Building Association will help you to build.

Small Payment Down and $1 Weekly.

Trains leave at 11.40 a. m. and 4.30 and 6 p. m.

Tickets and Circulars at Office Tuxedo Co., 622 F St. N. W.

SENATORS PLAY SEE-SAW

They Went Up and the Colonels Went Down.

LOUISVILLE'S WERE LOONEY

They Committed Weir and Foolish Antics Throughout the Game. Statesmen Put Up Errorless Play—Shortstop Was Good to the Locals—Anderson Pitches Well.

Games Yesterday.
Washington 15, Louisville 3.
Boston 12, Cincinnati 5.
New York 9, St. Louis 4.
Pittsburg 9, Brooklyn 6.
Baltimore 10, Cleveland 6.
Chicago 7, Philadelphia 6.

Games Today.
Cleveland at Washington.
Pittsburg at Boston.
Cincinnati at Brooklyn.
Louisville at New York.
Chicago at Baltimore.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Clubs. W. L. P. C.

Pittsburg, 24 12 .667

Chicago, 22 15 .595

Boston, 17 12 .586

Baltimore, 17 12 .586

Cincinnati, 20 15 .571

Cleveland, 20 15 .571

Phila., 18 14 .562

New York, 16 17 .485

Brooklyn, 14 18 .437

Wash., 14 20 .412

St. Louis, 12 24 .333

Louisville, 6 26 .187

St. Louis Laid Out.

The national game as she was yesterday played by nine amateur young men from the dark and bloody grounds of old Kentucky was a burlesque.

The costumes of the representatives of that sporting State resemble those worn in the Black Crook, and only in the manner of the action of the scenic drama goes on, could be found such weird uncanny and diabolic contortions and fiendish antics take place.

Their pitchers were wilder than bronchos, the catchers unable to hold the erratic curves, and every player who could get out of the ball, except Collins, Clarke and Welch, was filled with a burning desire to have a collar and elbow tussle, with it, or to throw it into the bleachers.

And they most generally succeeded.

Shugart and Kemmer were the principal offenders, the former working in three wild throws and two fumbles, each of which gave a Senator his first base, these errors of the short stop alone being responsible for nine of the local runs.

GAVE FOUR BASERS.

McDermott started out to pitch and in the first inning gave four basers on balls and made a wild pitch, which with the errors of O'Brien, Kemmer and Shugart gave five unearned runs and won the game.

When to this sort of play is added the fact that Anderson pitched a first-class game, having only one hit against him up to the sixth inning and that he was supported in practically faultless shape by his whole team, the one-sided score is fully accounted for.

The Louisville team seemed to be utterly demoralized and each man played on his last legs.

McDermott gave up the fight at the close of the third and fled to the dressing-room. Keel took his place and for one inning stemmed the current of disaster.

Then trouble began to pile again bigger than a wolf, and when at the close of the eighth, which was simply a farce, Keefe called the game out of pity to the suffering people, there was no objection from the visitors' bench.

O'Brien, except one slip, played an excellent game and Brothers, considering the awful throwing he had to contend with, did along fairly well.

Clark was the only visitor to touch Anderson for more than a hit, and his home run was made by brilliant running on a drive to center.

SENATORS DESERVE CREDIT.

Turning to the sunny side of the picture the Senators are seen to have batted with great regularity and fair frequency, considering how seldom the ball came over the plate.

Every man made a run and only Crooks failed to connect safely with the ball at least once.

And the smoothness and snap of the fielding was a delight to the eye.

Jack Crooks made the only error and that was almost pardonable, on a hard crack from O'Brien, but he attempted to ten others in the highest style of the art.

Anderson seems to be something of a fielding as well as a batting pitcher, for he covered first base three times, enabling Cartwright to cut off promising hits.

Cartwright's superiority over Brothers was manifestly shown in ground covered, and in taking care of thrown balls Dan was not in it.

Boyd captured a high and Crooks a low liner in championship form.

Cogan took McDermott's place in the sixth, when the game was safe, and handled Anderson's delivery nicely.

Anderson was the only man to make an extra base, placing a long drive in left, on which he secured three bags.

When Henshaw came to bat in the first with men on first and second, a press-box critic was describing him as a fearful example of a man who could not punt.

Just then Bill rolled the ball gently to ward third, and not only advanced his men, but beat McDermott's throw to first by ten feet.

McDERMOTT'S SKIRMISH.

Louisville straightened up for a few minutes after McDermott's skirmish in the first, but in the second two runs were earned on Boyd's drive over second and drop fly to short right.

In the fifth, after two were out, Knell gave Abbey his base, Joyce hit the ball to center, Shugart got tangled with Henshaw's grounder, and McDermott sent him all home by slinging a daisy cutter to center, getting second on the throw in and third on Cartwright's safe infield hit, scoring while the Colonels were running Cartwright down between bases.

Errors by Shugart and Kemmer, a base on balls, Crooks' hit by pitcher, and Abbey's single netted three more in the sixth.

In the eighth four were added. Abbey hit to O'Brien and Brothers let the throw go through him to the fence, Abbey going to third. Anderson hit for three bases. Shugart fumbled Selbach's drive, Brothers picked up Joyce's grounder, and from the base, with minutes to spare, and so thought he would give Knell a chance, tossed the ball to Phil, who dropped it, and Joyce walked the eighth when Cartwright singled down the left line, Kemmer promptly getting out of the way.

After Clarke's home, O'Brien scored in the sixth on a base on balls and singles by Shugart and Brothers.

Collins singled in the seventh, went to third on Knell's double to left, and scored on Sweeney's fly and out to Abbey. Attendance, 2,000. The score:

Washington. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Selbach, rf. 4 3 1 3 0 0

Joyce, 3b. 4 3 1 1 0 0

Hassamer, rf. 5 1 1 1 0 0

McGuire, c. 5 1 2 1 1 0

Cogan, c. 1 0 1 0 0 0

Cartwright, 1b. 6 1 2 5 3 0

Boyd, ss. 5 3 1 1 2 0

Crooks, 2b. 3 2 0 6 4 1

Zahner, p. 2 0 0 2 0 0

Anderson, p. 5 1 1 3 1 0

Total 42 18 11 24 12

Louisville. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Sweeney, cf. 3 0 0 1 0 1

O'Brien, 2b. 4 1 0 3 6 1

Shugart, ss. 4 0 1 3 1 5

Brothers, 1b. 4 0 1 1 1 1

Clarke, 1f. 4 1 2 1 0 0

Kemmer, 3b. 4 0 0 1 3 3

Welch, c. 0 0 0 1 0 0

Zahner, p. 1 1 1 1 0 0

McDermott, p. 1 0 0 2 0 0

Knell, p. 2 0 1 0 1 1

Total 28 3 6 24 15

Earned runs—Washington, 3; Louisville, 2.

Two-base hit—McGuire. Louisville hit—Anderson. Home run—Clarke. Double hit—Boyd, Crooks and Cartwright. Stolen bases—Boyd, Crooks and Cartwright. Errors—Zahner, McDermott, O'Brien, and McDermott. First base on errors—Washington 3. Left on bases—Washington 9.

ST. LOUIS Laid Out.

The national game as she was yesterday played by nine amateur young men from the dark and bloody grounds of old Kentucky was a burlesque.

The costumes of the representatives of that sporting State resemble those worn in the Black Crook, and only in the manner of the action of the scenic drama goes on, could be found such weird uncanny and diabolic contortions and fiendish antics take place.

Their pitchers were wilder than bronchos, the catchers unable to hold the erratic curves, and every player who could get out of the ball, except Collins, Clarke and Welch, was filled with a burning desire to have a collar and elbow tussle, with it, or to throw it into the bleachers.

And they most generally succeeded.

Shugart and Kemmer were the principal offenders, the former working in three wild throws and two fumbles, each of which gave a Senator his first base, these errors of the short stop alone being responsible for nine of the local runs.

GAVE FOUR BASERS.

McDermott started out to pitch and in the first inning gave four basers on balls and made a wild pitch, which with the errors of O'Brien, Kemmer and Shugart gave five unearned runs and won the game.

When to this sort of play is added the fact that Anderson pitched a first-class game, having only one hit against him up to the sixth inning and that he was supported in practically faultless shape by his whole team, the one-sided score is fully accounted for.

The Louisville team seemed to be utterly demoralized and each man played on his last legs.

McDermott gave up the fight at the close of the third and fled to the dressing-room. Keel took his place and for one inning stemmed the current of disaster.

Then trouble began to pile again bigger than a wolf, and when at the close of the eighth, which was simply a farce, Keefe called the game out of pity to the suffering people, there was no objection from the visitors' bench.

O'Brien, except one slip, played an excellent game and Brothers, considering the awful throwing he had to contend with, did along fairly well.

Clark was the only visitor to touch Anderson for more than a hit, and his home run was made by brilliant running on a drive to center.

SENATORS DESERVE CREDIT.

Turning to the sunny side of the picture the Senators are seen to have batted with great regularity and fair frequency, considering how seldom the ball came over the plate.

Every man made a run and only Crooks failed to connect safely with the ball at least once.

And the smoothness and snap of the fielding was a delight to the eye.

Jack Crooks made the only error and that was almost pardonable, on a hard crack from O'Brien, but he attempted to ten others in the highest style of the art.

Anderson seems to be something of a fielding as well as a batting pitcher, for he covered first base three times, enabling Cartwright to cut off promising hits.

Cartwright's superiority over Brothers was manifestly shown in ground covered, and in taking care of thrown balls Dan was not in it.

Boyd captured a high and Crooks a low liner in championship form.

Cogan took McDermott's place in the sixth, when the game was safe, and handled Anderson's delivery nicely.

Anderson was the only man to make an extra base, placing a long drive in left, on which he secured three bags.

When Henshaw came to bat in the first with men on first and second, a press-box critic was describing him as a fearful example of a man who could not punt.

—LaChance 2, Clinganman, Stenzel 2, Bierbauer. Double plays—Cross and Beckley, Grim and LaChance. Wild pitches—Keeney. Time—2:06. Umpire—Long.

ANOTHER FOR THE COLTS.

Philadelphia, June 4.—The home team dropped another game to the Colts to-day through their inability to hit Griffith. Taylor pitched for the Phils and was hit freely throughout the game. Chicago scored three runs in the opening inning after two men had been retired. After Becker and Dahler had been retired, Wilnot, Anson, Lange, and Everett made singles, scoring three runs. The feature of the game was Lange's home run and Anson's out of an easy fly. Score:

Philadelphia. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Hamilton, cf. 4 0 0 1 0 0

Boyle, 1b. 5 0 1 13 0 0

Hallman, 2b. 5 0 0 1 3 0

Dehany, 1f. 1 1 1 1 1 3

Thompson, 1f. 5 1 3 0 0 0

Cross, 3b. 5 2 2 1 4 0

Reilly, ss. 4 1 0 3 0 0

Clements, p. 1 1 1 0 0 0

Taylor, p. 4 0 0 1 2 0

Totals 40 6 11 24 14 2

Chicago. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Decker, rf. 4 0 0 0 0 0

Dahler, ss. 4 0 0 0 7 2

Wilnot, 1f. 4 2 3 2 1 0

Anson, 1b. 4 2 3 3 1 0

Lange, cf. 4 2 3 3 1 0

Everett, 3b. 4 1 2 3 1 0

Stewart, 2b. 4 0 1 1 0 0

Griffith, p. 1 1 1 0 0 0

Kritridge, c. 3 0 1 5 0 0

Totals 34 7 11 27 13 4

Philadelphia. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Chicago. 0 0 0 4 0 2 0 0 6

Earned runs—Philadelphia, 6; Chicago, 6.

Two-base hits—Thompson, Kritridge. Three-base hit—Clements. Stolen bases—Hamilton, Boyle, Cross, Lange, Everett. Left on bases—Philadelphia, 3; Chicago, 9. Struck out—By Taylor, 1; by Griffith, 5. First on errors—Philadelphia, 3. First on balls—Off Taylor, 2. Umpire—McDonald. Time—2:20. Attendance—4,935.

FIVE RUNS ON SINGLES.

Baltimore Made a Winning Spurt in a Good Contest.

Baltimore, Md., June 4.—Baltimore won in a well-contested game, Baltimore had the lead until the seventh inning, when Cleveland forced one ahead on doubles by Zimmerman and Childs, singles by McAfee and Cuddy, aided by Hemming's wild throw. Baltimore scored a winning lead in her half of the eighth by scoring five runs on singles by Keeler, Jennings and Brodie; three-baggers by Reitz and Taylor; and McAfee's nifty off Carey's line drive. Score:

Baltimore. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Keeler, rf. 5 2 2 5 0 0

Jennings, ss. 4 3 3 5 2 1

Brodie, 3b. 5 3 3 0 2 1

Brooks, 1b. 5 1 1 0 0 0

Carey, 1f. 5 1 0 9 1 0

Reitz, 2b. 5 0 1 2 3 0

Clarke, c. 4 0 1 0 1 0

Hemming, p. 0 0 0 1 1

Totals 40 10 14 27 9 3

Cleveland. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Barbott, 1f. 5 0 2 2 3 0

McKean, ss. 5 0 2 2 3 0

Childs, 2b. 4 0 1 2 4 0

McTeague, cf. 5 0 0 0 1 0

McTeague, 1f. 4 1 1 5 0 1

McAfee, 3b. 4 2 1 1 0 1

Zimmerman, 1b. 4 1 1 1 0 1

Cuddy, p. 4 0 0 1 0 1

Totals 39 6 10 24 14 3

Baltimore. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Cleveland. 3 0 0 0 1 5 2 10 6

Earned runs—Baltimore, 5; Cleveland, 3.

Two-base hits—Gleason, 2; Burkett, Keitz. Three-base hit—Carey. Stolen bases—Zimmerman, Childs, Gleason, McKean, Hemming, Childs. Struck out—By Hemming, 1. Bases on balls—By Cuddy, 3. Struck by pitcher—By Hemming, 1; by Cuddy, 1. Time of game, 2:10. Attendance—2,900. Umpire—Bets.

BOSTON WON EASILY.

Had No Trouble at All in Defeating the Cincinnati.

Boston, June 4.—The Cincinnati were defeated by the home team by the home team. Score:

Boston. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Low, 2b. 5 1 3 5 0 2 1

Bannon, rf. 5 1 1 0 0 0

Duffy, cf. 5 2 2 0 0 0

McCarthy, 1f. 3 2 1 0 0 0

Nash, 3b. 4 1 1 10 0 0

Nyce, ss. 4 1 1 2 4 1

Tenny, c. 4 1 2 6 3 0

Sullivan, p. 3 2 0 0 0 0

Totals 37 12 17 13 2 3

Cincinnati. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Latham, 3b. 3 2 1 3 0 0

Boyer, 1f. 5 0 1 2 0 0

Wright, 1b. 5 0 1 9 1 2

Waugh, c. 4 0 0 2 3 0

Gray, 2b. 4 1 2 4 4 0

Smith, ss. 4 1 3 2 3 0

Phillips, p. 4 0 1 1 3 0

Hogreiver, rf. 3 1 2 0 0 0

Totals 36 5 11 27 13 2

Boston. A. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Cincinnati. 0 0 0 0 1 7 0 12

Earned runs—Boston, 3; Cincinnati, 3.